

Cover Crops with No-Till Conference

Featuring Gabe Brown, Farmer, North Dakota

January 29th, 2016

Club Room, Ag Park, Columbus, Nebraska

Register, Coffee and Rolls, 9:00a.m.

Program starts at 9:30 a.m.

Program is Free—including Lunch

To reserve your spot, please call 402-563-4901
to register by January 27th

Topics include:

- No-till management tips
- Proper management, utilization, and advantages of cover crops
- Establishing and maintaining good soil health
- Importance of no-till practices for soil erosion and moisture conservation

Sponsored by: Nebraska Extension, Platte County; Natural Resources/Conservation Service Office in Columbus; Lower Platte North NRD, Lower Elkhorn NRD, Lower Loup NRD, Prairieland RC&D, and the Shell Creek Watershed Improvement Group. Several local banks and businesses are providing the resources needed to support the lunch for this event.

Protecting Lives • Protecting Property • Protecting the Future