

N EXTENSION Confronting Cropping Challenges

Confronting Crop Challenges is a new series of workshops offered by Nebraska Extension for those wanting to learn more about the crop challenges from the past growing season and management options to deal with them during 2017

Offered at the Following Local Locations:

December 7th

9:00 a.m. to Noon
USDA Service Center
Dakota City
**&
1:30 to 4:30 p.m.
Fire Hall
Pender

December 16th

9:00 a.m. to Noon
Fairgrounds
Community Building
Stanton
**&
1:30 to 4:30 p.m.
Nielsen Center
West Point

December 21st

9:00 a.m. to Noon
Extension Office
Fremont
**&
1:30 to 4:30 p.m.
First National Bank
Northeast
Tekamah

Topics to be Covered include:

Hybrid and Variety Selection   Soybean Disease Update
Grain Storage Concerns   Corn Disease Update
Herbicide Resistant Weeds   Input Cost Control
AND Private Pesticide License Certification

Registration for the general meeting is $10.

Those seeking to renew their private pesticide applicator license or obtain a new license during the meeting will need to pay an additional $30, or $40 total, for the training.

Pre-registration is appreciated but not required by calling the Burt County Extension Office at 402-374-2929